Contents

Foreword  v
Preface  vii

1. Policies on Imports from Economies in Transition: Summary and Overview  1
   Constantine Michalopoulos and L. Alan Winters
   The main findings  2
   The evolving situation in countries in transition  9
   The World Trade Organization  10
   Conclusions and recommendations  12

2. U.S. Policy on Imports from Economies in Transition  15
   Peter D. Ehrenhaft
   The U.S. import regime and nonmarket economies  16
   The antidumping law: the principal "contingent remedy"  20
   Possible initiatives to ease the burden of U.S. antidumping law for nonmarket economies  30
   Appendix A. Selected antidumping cases affecting the nonmarket economies since 1980  36
3. The Regulation of Imports from Transition Economies by the European Union

Brian Hindley

Designation of nonmarket economies 44
Legal structure of EC policy toward nonmarket economies 45
Contingent protection on exports from nonmarket economies 46
Economic effects of EC treatment of nonmarket economies 54
Conclusions and recommendations 57
Appendix A: EC Antidumping actions involving nonmarket economies initiated since 1989 60